

Our expertise

We understand that a dispute of any kind is likely to be an unwelcome distraction and therefore will provide you with a service which is not just a technically correct answer but one with a practical solution.

We provide a comprehensive range of advice, covering:

Commercial disputes

Property disputes

Construction disputes

Professional negligence for your business

Professional negligence for you

Insolvency

Contentious Probate

Debt recovery

Recent cases

We acted on a complex commercial debt case for a company who supplied fixings. An issue of the contract and the terms of a consignment agreement arose and the other party served a Statutory Demand. This was inappropriate and we made a threat to issue an injunction to restrain the presentation of a Winding Up Petition. This was successful and no claim was made.

We acted for an individual who received incorrect and negligent advice from a previous firm of solicitors. A claim was made against the previous firm and the matter was pursued by court proceedings with a successful outcome.
